Territorial and Bay waters.

Control or Regulation of Advertisements ~~in~~ in.

The question raised in this case is whether the Bombay State has jurisdiction within the limits of the harbour or within the territorial waters. The question was answered in the affirmative by the Advocate General in his opinion dated 31st July 1939. Relying on that opinion in the definition of the word 'State' as used in the Bombay Prohibition Act, 1949, it was made clear that the territorial waters were included (see sec. 2(36)). It would be competent to the State Legislature to control or regulate advertisements in the harbour or bay of Bombay, if such advertisement relates to any of the matters falling within the competence of the State Legislature.
